Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fayard are in receipt of a message from the War Department saying that their son, Second Lieutenant Fred Fayard, Jr., Army Air Force had been missing in action since June 11 over Rumania. Lt. Fayard was a navigator on the Bomber Plane B-24 Liberator and in the last letter his parents had said he had completed 26 missions.

The War Department assures the family that as soon as further news is had that they will be notified and it is hoped that better news will be forthcoming.

The loss of such estimable boys as Fred brings the war to our own hearts and lives and we feel more poignantly the tragedy of warfare and the great sacrifices our boys are making that we at home may have comforts.

The entire community should offer a prayer daily for the safe return of this fine boy.

INVESTITURE OF CANON TO TAKE PLACE JULY 30

VERY REV. RENE JOSEPH CANON SORIN

(From the Catholic Action of the South, Thursday, June 15, 1944) DeLisle, June 13.—This mission parish, situated some miles inland from the shores of the Gulf, will be host to prelates, priests, Religious and laymen from all over the Diocese of Natchez, as well as from other sections, when Most Rev. Richard O. Gerow, Bishop of Natchez, confers the insignia of honorary Canon of the Cathedral upon Rev. Rene Joseph Sorin, missionary pastor of the parish since 1896.

The solemn and impressive ceremonies will begin at 11:30 a. m., Sunday, July 30, in the Church of Our Lady of Good Hope. The Most Reverend Bishop will deliver the sermon, and Canon Sorin will also speak. The program will be followed by a luncheon for the reverend clergy at 2 p. m. in the cafeteria of the DeLisle Consolidated School.

Canon Sorin, a native of Chateaus, Department of Maine-et-Loire, France, studied first at Chartres, France, and then at St. Louis, Mo. where he was ordained July 14, 1896.

He came to the Natchez diocese upon his ordination, and was assigned to the parish of Our Lady of Good Hope, which he has served throughout his entire priestly life.

During his pastorate of close on half a century, Canon Sorin has made himself truly a part of the lives of his people, who hold him in the deepest affection. A great lover of music, he has written a number of compositions. From time to time, his little church resounds to the divine praises sung by visiting artists whose talents, in many cases, are worthy of the world's great concert halls.

Although wealth, so far as his parishioners are concerned, is hardly more than a word in the dictionary, the Good Hope church and rectory show the effects of the loving care and good taste of the pastor and the wholehearted support of his devoted flock.

Boy Scouts Attending Camp Salmen at Slidell

Going from here for a two week camping trip to Camp Salmen at Slidell this week were scouts from Troop 208, Louis Staehle, Charles Kiefer, Phil Kergosien, Ray Stieffel, Bobby Boh, "Sonny" Wolfe, Dickie Curran, Dick Mootring and Charles Staehle. From Troop 210 were Edward Burg, John Swan and Gary Gilmore.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Stieffel escorted the boys to the camp Sunday.

It is interesting to know how there came to be a Camp Salmen which has meant so much to Boy Scouts for so many summers. Mr. Salmen, a prominent lumberman of that section was hurrying to an important appointment when he was caught in a drenching rain and would have missed his appointment had it not been for the proffered umbrella of a Boy Scout. Mr. Salmen offered to pay the scout but was told by the boy that this was just a Scout act and from this has grown Camp Salmen.

There will be four more periods of two weeks each at Camp Salmen and any boys wanting to attend can make arrangements for attending.

Grieves For Son Killed In Action

Nearing his 93rd birthday Alfred Besancon, veteran of the Franco Prussian War 1870-71, sits alone in the home he built in 1902 and grieves for his gallant 35 year old son Alfred Besancon, Jr., who was killed in Italy in May of this year, giving his life that we in America may be free. The younger man entered the service of the Army more than a year ago and was a member of the Infantry Regiment of the 85th Infantry Division one of the first all-selective service divisions to go into combat. It is believed he was killed on the Apennine Way.

The old man recalls with pride his fine son who was fighting the same foe his father fought but has accepted the news of his death as final, as "I no longer receive his letters so I know he is dead," he said.

Mr. Besancon was born in France in 1851 but came to this section with his wife and young child in 1886 and settled for a short time in Fenton coming later to Bay St. Louis. Here he had a part in the building of the old Torch canning plant and later worked under ex-Mayor Charles Traub, Sr., when pipes were laid for the new water system.

In recalling the days of old France he says it is as familiar to him as Bay St. Louis and is proud of having fought for his native land in his bright uniform mounted on his back charger and fighting in the 2nd Luiracrier Richaffenne.

His daughter by his first marriage is Mrs. Phillip Adams of Cedar Point and a daughter Mrs. Ralph Hedge of California whose husband is in the Navy and a son Joseph Besancon of New Orleans.

The younger soldier leaves a wife and young son.

The old soldier has his radio but the War news means less to him now and he finds it difficult to read but he lives with his memories and waits for the time when peace shall again be in our world and his daughter will come home.

THIRD QUARTER TRUCK RATIONS

IN PACIFIC

PVT. JAMES RUHR

Private James Ruhr, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Ruhr of Waveland, who is with an Engineering Unit of the Army in the Pacific.

The chairman of the Surgical Dressing Unit wishes to request that the ladies of the County devote as much time as is possible to the making of sterile dressings. It is necessary for this county to produce 3,500 dressings each week to meet the present quota. This means unceasing work on the part of the women, but we feel that with these needs known the response of workers will be as splendid as it has in the past, and the women will rally to this cause.

The President of the Bay-Waveland Garden Club, Mrs. J. T. Provell wishes to announce that the Surgical Dressings Rooms, in the Masonic Temple, will be opened each Friday, by members of the Club. The chairman of the day are Mrs. K. T. Knoblock and Mrs. George Stevenson. All members are urged to participate in this work.

Mrs. Stroup, Home Economics teacher of Central School will open the Surgical Dressings rooms each Wednesday evening at 7:00 P. M. Those ladies who are unable to attend day classes for work, will be able to take advantage of this evening program.

Mrs. Briscoe Goldman and Mrs. Leo Seal attended the monthly meeting of the Field and Hospital Council, which was held on Wednesday, June 20th. These meetings are very interesting and of much value to the workers in this Council.

The quarterly meeting of the Executive Board of the Hancock County Red Cross, was held on Wednesday, June 28th, at three P. M. in the Courthouse.

The Office of the Hancock County Red Cross wishes to report a very great increase in the Home Service work. Much of this work consists of claims and benefits for Ex-Servicemen and their families.

Tax Collections

In first 20 days of June the tax commission reports collections for the state totaling $2,692,432.95, this being approximately $376,000 ahead of the same period of 1943. The first six months of 1944 will exceed collections in 1943 for the same period by more than two million dollars. The Motor Vehicle department shows an increase in gasoline and oil tax for two straight months, the collection from that source in the month of May, this year, being $9,479,520.00.

Fire Damage

Mississippi State Hospital at Whitfield sustained a loss of around $25,000 last week when a mule barn on the grounds was lost by fire. The fire was discovered right after the corner of the building was struck by lightning, hence it is believed that the fire originated from that cause. Mules in the barn were saved.

Road Money

A news report from Washington says that the House committee on roads has approved a bill carrying an appropriation of one and a half billion dollars for post-war road building. It is estimated that under the distribution system to be employed, Mississippi will receive approximately $8,705,000, on a matching basis of 40 per cent by the State.

Rural Life Movement

Gov. Bailey who has been taking considerable interest in the Rural Life developments, has released the names of a committee of 100 who will act to promote the welfare and progress of Rural Life in Mississippi. The movement is one of vast importance to this state on account of the large percent of the people who dwell in the rural sections. Anything that advances the common good of Rural Life in Mississippi is certainly worth while.

Primary Early

People of the state should keep in mind the fact that the primary election this summer will be held on July Fourth, which is earlier than in former years. Congressmen in three districts, a supreme judge in one district and a circuit judge in one district are to be voted on in the first primary and voters should keep the early date in mind and not forget the election.

Gov. Arnall Brings Suit

Gov. Ellis Arnall of Georgia has filed a damage suit against about 20 railroad companies asking for more than 60 million dollars in damages to his state on account of alleged excessive freight rates. Lake Junaluska, N. C.—Miss Susan Swan, of Bay St. Louis, Mississippi, who has been taking the eight-day course in the Methodist Youth Caravan Training Center here, was assigned at its close, June 24, to seven successive weeks of volunteer summer service in local churches of The Upper South Carolina Conference.

"OUTSTANDING"

The United States Department of Commerce, a branch of the Government not given to extravagant statement, said this in a review of the Nation's economy for 1943, published in the January issue of "Survey of Current Business":

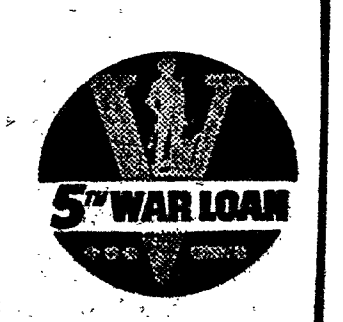

"The ability of electric power supply to keep pace with . . . rapidly expanding needs has been an outstanding feature among war production achievements. It is noteworthy that this industry was perhaps the only one confronted with enormous war demands which was able to continue giving adequate civilian service."

And this has been done in the area served by Mississippi Power Company without any increase in price even though materials, taxes, wages and other items that enter into the cost of electric service have increased.

While there is no shortage of electricity, in order to conserve fuel, manpower, transportation and critical materials use it wisely—without waste.

"COVER GIRL" AT A. & C. THEATER SUNDAY AND MONDAY A Columbia Technicolor Musical

All that Technicolor, Terpsichore and the allied forces of musical entertainment can contribute to an enterprise in customer and exhibitor interest is present and handsomely accounted for in this co-starring of Rita Hayworth and Gene Kelly at top of a cast lush with names and talents. The picture is neck-and-neck with the best Technicolor musicals in anybody's portfolio of hits.

Miss Hayworth has an edge in story importance, closely crowded by Kelly, and stands out, as to beauty, above the 15 professional cover girls brought to Hollywood to appear gorgeously in the picture. She plays a singer in a Brooklyn cafe show who wins a cover-girl contest. She performs a handful of song-and-dance routines, all spectacularly staged, with an artistry to set the town—any town you name—talking.

Kelly, playing the cafe owner and dancer in his own stage show, combines a sort of strong-silent-man role with some whirlwind dancing numbers which include a me-and-my-shadow routine that threw the preview audience into an uproar of appreciation. This topper in upwards of a dozen production numbers is one of the books. Close runner-up to it is a Tony Pastor's production number, by Miss Hayworth, which introduces new and tricky stage devices likely to be emulated by many a producer of musicals in the future.

Music by Jerome Kern and lyrics by Ira Gershwin enrich and make doubly memorable the super-spectacular stages by Val Baset and Seymour Felix with M. W. Stollhoff directing the music brilliantly.

Comedy, of which there is plenty, is handled by Silvers, duplicating his hits in other Technicolor musicals, and by Eve Arden, portraying a sophisticate who knows all the words on both sides of the social fence.

Virginia Van Upp's screenplay, from an adaptation by Marion Parsonnet and Paul Gangelin of a story by Erik Gelsey, is a neat job of telling quickly, between production numbers, a story strong enough to carry over and around the whopping routines which are the picture's essential content.

Price of Melons

A news report from Washington says the ceiling price of $26 a ton for watermelons will be raised. Senator Eastland and other members of Congress had protested to the OPA against the low price fixed for melons. The watermelon crop in Mississippi has come to be a source of considerable revenue to farmers if they get a price that will give them a fair profit above cost of production.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Light Words are 'Grave' Words

There's a poster on the wall of Sam Abernathy's store that doesn't say much. It just shows a cross, with a Yankee helmet on it—and the caption: "Light words are 'grave' words."

It isn't hard to figure out what that sign means. Loose talk has dug a lot of graves... and done a lot of harm here at home, too. And still you hear it.

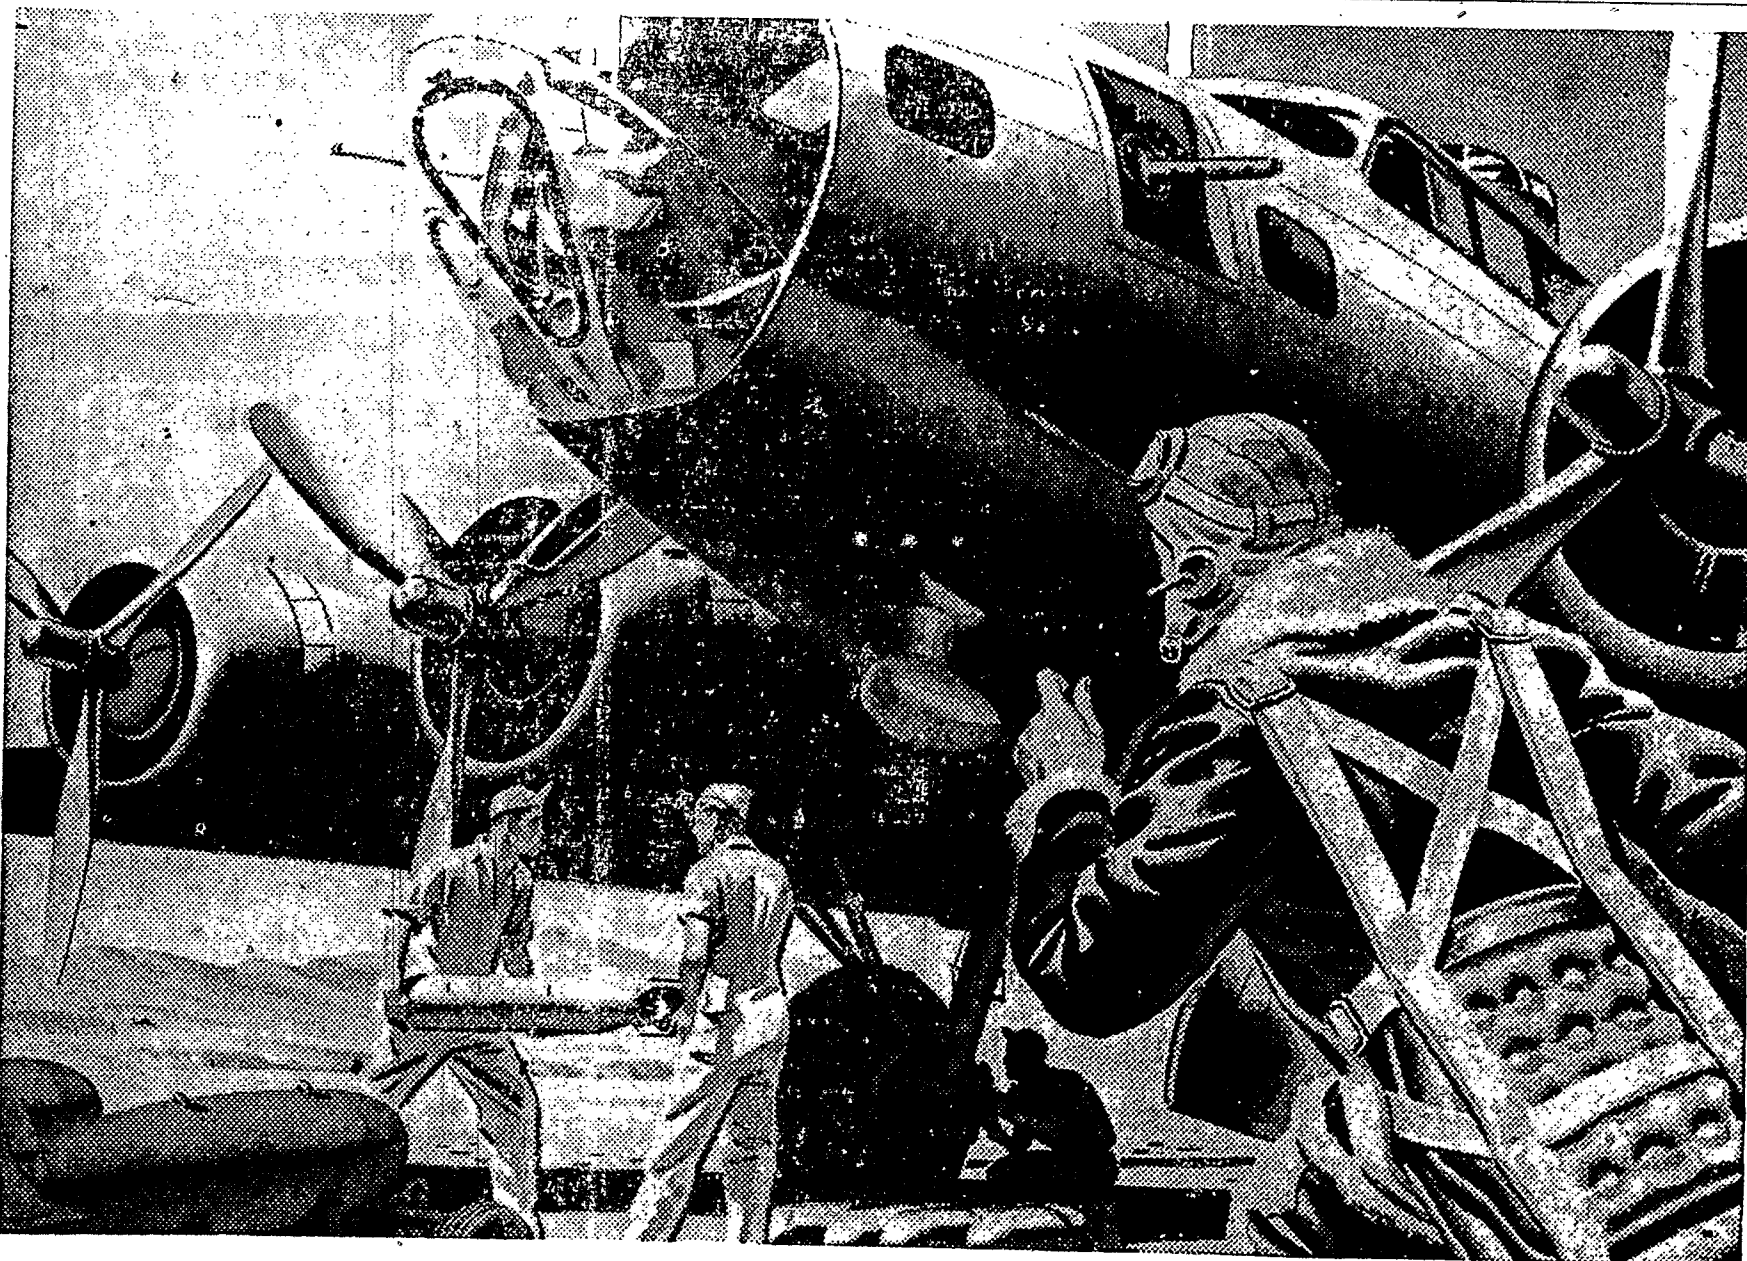

You hear, for instance, talk about our soldiers drinking and carousing around Army Camps. Of course, when you get the facts there's not an atom of truth in it. A U. S. Government survey found our soldiers were the soberest, the best behaved in history—with most of them drinking nothing stronger than a moderate glass of beer.

From where I sit, that kind of "loose talk" can do just as much to undermine morale as any rumor that the Axis could invent. And it's up to every one of us to spike that kind of sabotage before it spreads.

HE'S OFF ON HIS FIFTY-FIFTH MISSION

There he goes again—out to pour more destruction on the Axis—once more to face the death of enemy fighters and flak!

He won't hesitate to go out on his fifty-sixth or his hundred and fifty-sixth mission. He knows he might not come back, but he keeps on going—giving more and more until the Hitler and

Tojo crews are ready to "call it quits."

This is only your fifth mission—and a mission which is mighty easy in comparison with the ones he makes every week.

Stay in the fight by welcoming the Victory Volunteers—at least double your Bond purchases and then keep on. Your buying means "bombs away" for the Axis!

ORTIE THEATRE SUNDAY-MONDAY "LOST ANGEL"

Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's
Romance Starring Margaret
O'Brien with James Craig,
Marsha Hunt, Philip Mer-
ivale, Henry O'Neil,
Donald Meek

One of the tenderest romantic comedies of recent months is to show Sunday and Monday at the Ortie Theatre. The film is M-G-M's "Lost Angel," starring Margaret O'Brien, the youngster who made such a sensational impact on American movie-going audiences in "Journey for Margaret" with James Craig and Marsha Hunt.

Little Margaret will bring a lump to your throat, a smile to your lips and aglow to your heart with her portrayal of the child prodigy who finds an unsuspected happiness when she runs away from home on the trail of a breezy reporter who has promised to show her magic.

When a group of scientists undertake a study in experimental psychology, their subject is a founding girl whom they plan to raise scientifically for six years in order to demonstrate that any child can be a mental giant. When the day to prove their results arrives a reporter is sent to interview the child. Irrked by her superior intelligence, he disputes her assertion that there is no such thing as magic. This so disturbs the tot that in order to prove her point she runs away seeking the reporter. Circumstances arise which force him to harbor the child for a time, and during this time the child learns of tenderness and love. She gains a sense of human values which had been deliberately kept from her and in return brings happiness to the reporter and his fiancée. James Craig and Marsha Hunt, who demonstrated their flair for comedy in "The Human Comedy," are wonderful foils for Margaret. Her shenanigans will keep audiences rolling in the aisles as she learns about the world and the people in it. Keenan Wynn, son of comic Ed Wynn, is a semi-comic gangster whose arrival in Craig's apartment complicates the plot. He is outstanding in his scenes with the child star. Also in the cast are Philip Merivale, Henry O'Neil, Donald Meek and Sara Haden.

Robert Sisk has spared no production details and Roy Rowland's deft direction keeps the story moving at a fast pace.

WEDDING OF MUCH INTEREST HERE TAKES PLACE AT LAKE CHARLES

A wedding claiming interest here and all along the coast was that of Miss Audrey Claire Moody, daughter of Mrs. Thomas Moody and the late Dr. Moody of Lake Charles, La., and Mr. Albert Alva Hruschka, which was solemnized at the First Methodist Church, Lake Charles, on Saturday, June 24, at 6 p. m.

The bride wore a wedding dress of ivory satin and lace the bodice having a long torso of lace. The veil of illusion was held to her head with a cap bouquet of stephanotis centered with two lavender orchids.

In the bridal party were six bridesmaids, a maid of honor and a matron of honor all wearing aqua green and carrying arm bouquets of yellow Galia lilies. The flower girl wore a dainty dress of pale pink net and carried pink sweetheart roses. The men in the wedding party wore the white summer suits.

The church was artistically decorated with three tiers of candles which reached across the chancel forming a beautiful background for the wedding party.

The couple left for an extended wedding trip through Mexico and will be away for a month. For traveling the bride wore a light blue wool suit worn with brown accessories and shoulder orchid.

The bride is a niece of Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Evans of this city and has visited here often. Her mother was a frequent visitor here before she was married and since then also. There are many here who have known the bride since her childhood.

LEST WE FORGET

The Constitution of the United States is the final refuge of every right that is enjoyed by any American citizen. So long as it is observed those rights will be secure. Whenever it is disregarded, the end of orderly government as we have known it for more than one hundred and twenty-five years, will be at hand. The Constitution represents a government of law. There is only one other form of government, and that is a government of force. Americans must make their choice between these two. One signifies justice and liberty; the other tyranny and oppression. To live under the American Constitution is the greatest political privilege that was ever accorded to the human race.—Calvin Coolidge.

Under the guise of the war effort, there are all too many Federal agencies tinkering with the Constitution.

While our brave lads fight for freedom all over the world, the least we can do as red-blooded Americans is to see that the freedom and independence guaranteed under the Constitution are preserved intact.

Little will be gained if we lose here what our sons fight for over there.

Under the Federal Constitution the government is umpire, not player, and the game must be played according to the rules.

A wedding of interest to Bay St. Louis where the bridegroom has visited often was that of Miss Charlotte Harris niece of Mayor and Mrs. C. N. Harris of Canton and Lieut. C. N. Harris of St. Simons Island, were married at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harris in Canton on Saturday, June 24, at 5:30 p. m.

The six ribbon bearers formed an aisle for the wedding party and made a pretty picture in dresses of white marquisette carrying the broad bands of white ribbon terminating the aisle at the improvised altar formed of fern and white gladioli with two tiers of candelabra on either side. In front of the candelabra were baskets of white gladioli, and here the couple pledged their troth. Lt. Taylor had as his best man his brother Les Taylor of Jackson.

The bride was attired in a lovely wedding gown of white marquisette with a bodice of Chantilly lace and inserts of the same in the billowy skirt which flowed into a graceful train. She wore the finger-tip veil with a halo of lace to match that in her gown. She carried a bridal bouquet of white carnations and gardenias centered with an orchid and from which fell the tiny streamers of white satin ribbon. She was given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. Harris. Her maid of honor also wore the white marquisette and carried a bouquet of pink carnations, pink roses and blue delphiniums.

Preceding the double ring ceremony which was performed by Rev. Dr. M. L. Smith, president of Millsaps College, Miss Virginia Price sang "The Sweetest Story Ever Told" and "Because."

Lt. Taylor has visited Bay St. Louis often as the guest here of his brother-in-law and sister Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Gilmore.

Mrs. Gilmore and her son Jimmie attended the wedding and while away spent some time in Jackson.
